

INTERESTED IN LEARNING HOW TO SPEAK CZECH? CZECH CENTER IS THE PERFECT PLACE TO START!

Czech Center NY is currently offering introductory language courses taught by a professional native Czech teacher!

WHERE?

The courses take place in the Library of Czech Center New York, Bohemian National Hall (2nd floor), 321 E 73rd Street, between 1st & 2nd Ave

WHEN?

Monday:	7pm – 8:30pm	Intermediate
Wednesday:	7:30pm – 9pm	Pre-Intermediate
Thursday:	6:15pm – 7:35pm	Beginners
Saturday:	11pm – 12:30pm	Pre-Intermediate
	13pm – 14:30pm	Intermediate

We provide various resources including elements of Czech language for FREE to the public:

- Tuesday Film Club – Czech films with English subtitles.
- Cultural Programs – Various events such as lectures, book launches and exhibitions.
- Czech Library – An extensive collection of Czech literature on culture, art, history and more.
- Czech Center Website – Up to date content which is available in the Czech, as well as English.
- “Czech – US inspirations”- Informative content on Czech and US inspired events from history and modern times

COMING SOON

- Culinary, sing-along, and physical exercise workshops
- Tourist Linguistic Czech course (or Survival Czech Phrases Course for Tourists)

For more information, please visit www.czechcenter.com or contact us at: info@czechcenter.com