

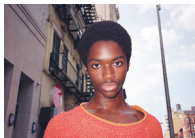

EXHIBITION: MARIE TOMANOVA: YOUNG AMERICAN

Curated by art historian Thomas Beachdel as the culminating show of the New Bohemia Exhibition series, Marie Tomanova's Young American celebrates the freedom and identity of the idea of an "America" still rife with dreams, possibilities and hope.

ON VIEW: JUNE 28 – AUGUST 10, in the Gallery

CZECH THAT FILM 2018 (CTF)

This festival highlights the best recent Czech films through screenings and discussions with cast and crew across the US.

FILM: A PROMINENT PATIENT - CTF

A Prominent Patient is based on the true story of Czech diplomat and politician Jan Masaryk, the son of Czechoslovakia's founding father T. G. Masaryk. Set just before World War II, he desperately tries to save his homeland.

Director: Julius Ševčík, 2016, 113 min, Czech Republic

JULY 26, 7PM in the Cinema

FILM: ICE MOTHER – CTF
Q&A WITH ACTRESS ZUZANA KRONEROVÁ

It is long overdue for Hannah to jump into the water and see where the current leads. One day, she stops alongside the river when a man waves in distress and she rushes to help. Her dip into the icy water might change her life forever.

Director: Bohdan Sláma, 2017, 106 min, Czech Republic
AUGUST 2, 7PM in the Cinema

FILM: THE LINE

Adam Krajňák is a father and head of a criminal group that smuggles cigarettes from Ukraine to Slovakia. Peaceful co-existence of the two intertwining worlds is shaken by the newly-secured border of the Schengen area that increases anxiety about the unclear future.

Director: Peter Bebjak, 2017, 112min, Slovakia

AUGUST 9, 7PM in the Cinema

ROOFTOP CINÉ-CONCERT SERIES 2018
'MASTERS OF SILENT COMEDY'

Laugh out loud with the greatest silent comedians of all time! The comedic mastery of Buster Keaton, Marion Davies, and Harold Lloyd is accompanied by live music.

7PM Rooftop opens for a welcome drink
8PM Movie accompanied by live music upon sunset
To secure your tickets go to www.czechcenter.com
In the event of rain, the screening will take place in the BNH. Cash bar provided by Bohemian Spirit Restaurant.

FILM: THE GENERAL

Rejected by the Confederate army and taken for a coward by his beloved Annabelle, Johnny is given a chance to redeem himself, waging a one-man war against hijackers, an errant cannon, and the unpredictable hand of fate.

Live Music: Karel Růžička Jr. (saxophone) & friends.

Introduction by film historian Vito Adriaensens.

AUGUST 16

FILM: SHOW PEOPLE

All Peggy Pepper wants in life is to be a great dramatic actress. But when comic Billy Boyle gives Peggy her big break, she puts her dreams on hold and becomes America's comedy queen.

Live Music: Karel Růžička Jr. (saxophone) & friends.

Introduction by film historian Vito Adriaensens.

AUGUST 23

FILM: SAFETY LAST!

Harold Lloyd is trying to make it in the big city as a lowly department store clerk. He comes up with a wild publicity stunt that gets him started on the climb to success.

Live Music: Michael Krásný (bass) & friends.

Introduction by film historian Vito Adriaensens.

AUGUST 30

EXHIBITION: AUGUST 21, 1968

20 iconic photographs capture the dramatic events of August 21, 1968 in Czechoslovakia. An army of half-a-million soldiers of five Soviet bloc states invaded the country with heavy military equipment.

OPENING: AUGUST 21, 7PM in the Gallery

ON VIEW: AUGUST 21 – OCTOBER 5, in the Gallery

HOMMAGE TO MILOŠ FORMAN AT LINCOLN CENTER FILM: BLACK PETER

SEPTEMBER 21, 7PM (6PM RECEPTION)

SEPTEMBER 23, 4PM

Purchase tickets at www.filmlinc.org

THE POWER OF THE POWERLESS AT LINCOLN CENTER FILMS: DAISIES, THE END OF A PRIEST, CASE FOR THE NEW HANGMAN, FRUIT OF PARADISE

Four banned Czechoslovak films. Organized in collaboration with Film Society of Lincoln Center.

SEPTEMBER 21 – 23

Purchase tickets

at www.filmlinc.org

